SEPARATING AND COMBINING

1. To separate, pull the spatula out of the tool (Fig. 1).
2. Then, with the spatula facing down, slide the spatula handle down and away from the rest of the tool (Fig. 2).
3. To combine, fold the basting brush and fork into their handle (Fig. 3)
4. Then, align the pegs and holes with the spatula handle making sure the spatula is still extended.
5. Push the spatula and corkscrew handles together in opposite directions until the pegs are in place. Fold the spatula into the handle to lock (Fig. 4)
